Privacy Notice Statement

The Consulate General of Canada in Hong Kong and Macao is committed to protecting the privacy rights of individuals and safeguarding the personal information under its control according to the Privacy Act.

The personal information is being collected under the authority of the Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Act and will be stored in the Department’s corporate repository for up to one year, accessible only by those with a working need to do so. The Consulate General will only use the information collected for the purposes of executing the Canada-Hong Kong/Canada-Macao Drawing Contest 2023 and other public affairs projects featuring the submitted designs. The information collected is: the Contestant's full name, school name and current grade level, information of teacher-in-charge, including his/her full name, work phone and work email that will be used to follow up with contestants and teachers if necessary and winners about the prize pick-up arrangements. In order to acknowledge the artists’ work properly, the full name, school name and current grade level of the first place winners will be printed on the greeting card along with the design, which will be distributed to our contacts. The full name, school name and current grade level of the top three winners of each category will be put on the e-cards which will be made available on our official Facebook page for public download. The same data elements will be put up at the winning designs' exhibition(s) which may take place outside the Consulate. The winning designs (including the name, grade level and school name of the winners) may also be featured in other public affairs projects executed by the Consulate General.
